

CTY Information Session

Dear Parents,

Johns Hopkins University is renowned for their worldwide Centre for Talented Youth Development program which offers stimulating online and summer courses for academically advanced students from Year 3 to Year 13.

- Expose students to above-grade-level testing in a “low-stakes” setting
- Assess a student’s high academic talents and/or reveal previously unrecognized abilities
- Build a foundation for stronger academic and study skills
- Focus educational planning and decision-making
- Meet students and parents who share a similar interest in learning
- Be recognized for academic excellence

Meet us and find out more at Sha Tin Junior School (SJS):

Date: October 25, 2016 (Tuesday)

Time: 6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Venue: SJS School Hall, Sha Tin Junior School Campus

RSVP: https://centerfortalentedyouth.formstack.com/forms/sjs_information_session_rsvp

(Please RSVP on or before October 19)

The session is for both Sha Tin Junior School and Sha Tin College. During the session, we will provide first-hand information about CTY summer and online programs, including their benefits to the students and how to qualify. SJS student representatives will also share their recent experience at one of the summer camps. For further information, please refer to: www.cty.jhu.edu.
