

Over the two week summer course, we were exposed to different lectures and practicals to familiarise ourselves with studying as a vet student and possible careers in the veterinary field. Overall, it was a good experience and I believed I learnt many new things about studying and becoming a vet. I believe that the practicals were really effective as to the familiarisation of veterinary practices while the excursions to different areas of work such as the animal hospital and dog quarantine were also very insightful.

Tsz Hei Kwok, 13P1

